MAYAN Street Food

Mayan Café owners Bruce Ucán & Anne Shadle welcome you to their Mayan Street Food (truck) at Gravelly Brewing Co. Here, we serve authentic Mayan street food to pair with Gravelly's hand-crafted beers. 4-star chef Ucán, a native of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula, began his culinary career with a food truck in Louisville in 1996, later opening a restaurant on NuLu's East Market Street where it has thrived for over 20 years. Local sourcing is at the core of what we believe about food, so we procure the bulk of our meat, fish and vegetables from local farms in Kentucky & Indiana. At Gravelly, you can be sure you're getting a unique music experience complimented by hand-crafted food, all washed down with fresh beer in the world's first music brewery.
